The Nanfang Medical University or Southern Medical University as it is more popularly known in China was established to achieve the vision -

"Be united, realistic, creative and devoted". It had a long painstaking journey for more than half a century to become a comprehensive medical university true to its vision.

Special Features:

NMU is not only one of the largest universities of the country which has produced large numbers of medical professionals but also enjoys "degree conferring status" in master's degree in 41 majors and doctoral degree in 13 majors.

The Teaching Staff:

The university at present has more-than 2000 staff members of science and technology specialisation. Out of them, 700 are full and associate professors, more than 80 doctoral research supervisors, 200 supervisors for masters degree and many of them have been the recipients of National Awards.

Infrastructure:

Located at the foot of the picturesque Baiyun Mountain in Guangzhou, it, together with its school in the suburbs, covers an area of nearly 1 million square meters. The college campus is modern and has state-of-the-art buildings, laboratories and class rooms. It has one of the largest libraries with 1 million books and 2300 periodicals with e-learning facilities.

From the desk of President

Welcome to Nanfang Medical University !

We are a WHO recognized medical university with 50 years service to Chinese army before 2004. As one of the most internationalized higher education institutes in China, we have offered degree education and training courses for more than 600 students from over 60 countries and areas.

I hope that you will find NMU is your right choice for study. I would like to avail myself of this opportunity to express my appreciation for the efforts and highly praiseworthy work of our overseas partner Saraswati Online.Com India Limited without whom this program would not have been possible.

Yanhong Yu, President , Nanfang Medical University

Hospital:

NMU has three state-of-the art hospitals namely, Nanfang, Zhujiang and Jiangdu attached to it. Out of them Nanfang hospital, the first affiliated hospital of the university with 1500 beds is regarded as a First Class Hospital Grade III and as one of "National One Hundred Exemplary Hospitals". The hospital has 1700 professionals including 300 specialists and professors working in the 50 medical departments that comprise the hospital. The other two hospitals are also of equally high standards.

The Zhujiang Hospital, the second hospital, has 48 medical departments and has a total strength of 621 doctors and 7 senior professors. Jiangdu Hospital, the later addition to the university, has 300 beds and several clinical departments. It also has an Overseas Medical Hospital with 400 beds catering specifically to patients from overseas.
